

Friends of the Library (8/17)

This is an application form for a Friends of the Library membership at Pacific Islands University.

Adults age 18 years or older are eligible.

Cost is $15.00 for 1 year (12 months from start of membership)

Benefits:

- I can borrow the Library's circulating collections and can have up to six (6) items at a time;
- I can request one renewal of library materials for more time in person or by telephone (588-1821);
- I can use the Library's computers for study or research according to the University's computer use guidelines; and
- I can get assistance from Library staff in person or by telephone (588-1821).

Responsibilities:

- I am the only person who can use my account. No library card is provided so I will present upon request a photo ID for verification;
- I am responsible for return of materials by the due date;
- If material is returned late, I have to pay an overdue fee;
- I will pay for lost or damaged materials according to prices set by the Library; and
- I understand that repeated violation of library regulations may result in limited or cancelled membership with no refund.

By submitting this application and payment I understand and agree to the Library's policies and fees.
