LIBRARY NEWS & EVENTS

BOOK SALE—The PIU Library will have a table at the University Of Guam Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Library's book sale on UOG Charter Day, Tuesday, March 10, 2015. Time is 8am—noon in the Library's After Hours Room. Books to be sold are unneeded donations—primarily science fiction and some textbooks for courses that aren't taught at PIU.

Congratulations to the winners of the Word of the Week drawings:

Jordan D.(twice), Patleen, Cedric, Darlicia, and Ramie Sue.

Special note to Melvin for submitting the first entry when the WOTW started in January. This is an opportunity to learn more about words that you hear but don't know the meaning or use.

The Library has become an affiliate member of the National Network of Libraries of Medicine, as part of the Pacific Southwest Region headquartered at UCLA Medical Library in Los Angeles CA. This designation makes the resources of the National Library of Medicine available to the PIU Library, as well as training and funding opportunities.

Simeon Manibusan Palomo, Guam naturalist artist and author of Tropical Art, Guam, will present a program on Saturday, April 18, 2015 at 1pm to discuss his book and the craft of turning local plants into works of art. This is the concluding event in the Library's celebration of National Library Week 2015. This event is open to the public.

There wouldn't be PIU days without the Liebenzell Mission.

Sixty years Liebenzell Mission/ by Anna R. Zimmermann

PIU Library's Mission Statement:
