Thursday and Friday sessions are on the PIU Campus.
Both sessions Saturday are being held at Palm Ridge Inn.

We are thankful to have the following businesses as supporters of our event.

The costs for this conference are very reasonable:

For 3-day conference: $30/person. This includes all material, snacks on Thursday and Friday, and lunch served at Palm Ridge on Saturday.

Thursday night only: $10/person, includes snacks and material

Friday night only: $10/person, includes snacks and material

Saturday only: $20/person, includes snacks, lunch (served at Palm Ridge) and material

If at all possible attend the entire conference, for the maximum benefit, and the best bargain.

This year's M. E. C. is being planned and led by Jo Romaniello. Jo is an instructor at Pacific Islands University. She leads and practices in a Christian counseling ministry at Gateway Bible Church as well as in secular settings and is a trainer for the Red Cross disaster mental health team and a facilitator working with military families. She is a licensed marriage and family counselor with more than 25 years' experience.

Pastor Fred Hennes. After spending 17 years in high-tech manufacture, Fred began a second career as pastor. He is currently the Senior Pastor of Gateway Bible Church, Scotts Valley CA. He has led GBC to integrate counseling services with pastoral care. It is a model we need to hear about.

M James Sawyer is the Dean of Pacific Islands Seminary. He teaches and writes about Theology in a number of venues. He blogs at <https://zychonline.com/SacredSaga/>

Iotaka Choram is the chair of the Bible Department at PIU, and a pastor in the Evangelical Church of Chuuk.

These servant leaders will be joined by others from our University Family.
